MALA POMOĆ

Da biste dobro razumeli početak priče...

Čuveni detektiv Šerlok Holms pozvan je da reši neobičan slučaj: ser Čarls Baskervil je pronađen mrtav na svom imanju, a kraj njega se nalaze tragovi džinovskog psa. Ali, prema jednoj srednjovekovnoj legendi, porodica Baskervil će biti prokleta i progoniće je pakleni pas. Mnoge članove ove porodice je već sustigla iznenadna i misteriozna smrt. Štaviše, naslednik preminulog, ser Henri koji već mora da ode u Devon kako bi preuzeo vlasništvo nad imanjem, primio je preteću poruku koja ga upozorava da se drži dalje od tog mesta. Kako osigurati njegovu bezbednost? Šerlok Holms je veoma zauzet u Londonu, pa odlučuje da pošalje u Baskervil svog vernog prijatelja Votsona da bi nadzirao ser Henrija. Pre nego što krene, Šerlok ga upozorava: njegov zadatak će biti veoma opasan i biće srećan ako se Votson vrati živ...

Sherlock Holmes, Dr Watson and Sir Henry Baskerville are at the train station.

Watson and Sir Henry are on their way to Baskerville Hall to begin the investigation into the death of Sir Charles Baskerville.

Just before they get on the train, Sherlock Holmes says: "Do not go on the moor at night".

Sir Henry! Why did Holmes say that?

To understand, I must tell you about the curse of the Baskervilles.

Sir Hugo Baskerville was a terrible man.

One night he kidnapped a young girl and kept her prisoner. But she escaped through the window and climbed down the ivy on the wall.

Sir Hugo was so furious he promised to give his soul to the Powers of Evil if he found her again.

He released his dogs to catch the girl. Then he rode out after her across the moor.

Sir Hugo's friends were worried and went out to find him. On the way they met a shepherd who was very frightened.

I saw Sir Hugo with the dogs following a girl. There was a monstrous beast pursuing them, a hound of hell.
